Williamsburg Trip

Earlier this month I was able to spend a week of vacation with my parents and brother Jimmy in Williamsburg, Virginia. My parents are from New York so it was a nice trip for all of us.

We were able to visit Colonial Williamsburg which was very exciting for my brother Jimmy. Jimmy is 44 and is developmentally disabled. He has never spoken but really enjoyed the fife and drum corp. I especially like this picture of us together with a few members of the corp. Jimmy would smile and point to them and to the same picture on his shirt.

Jimmy reminds me to really enjoy the simple pleasures of life. I am blessed to have a family that loves me and prayer partners that support me both financially and spiritually. Thank you for your partnership and encouragements.
