Bibles for Zambia

Part of my responsibilities at ETS is ordering book and Bibles for missionaries. Several months ago we received a request for John Maxwell Leadership Bibles for 288 chiefs of Zambia. I was able to talk with Thomas Nelson Publishing and secured the hard cover Leadership Bibles for $12.34 instead of the retail price of $29.99. It was a savings of over $5,000 dollars.

On July 29, the President of Zambia presented a Bible to the tribal chiefs that were assembled in the capital city. Zambia was declared a Christian nation in 1996. The hope for Zambia is that the local leaders will use Christian principles to lead and guide the country and each will come to a saving faith in Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your prayers and support that enable me to track down and secure the lowest prices and stretch the missionary dollar. Because of your support, Zambian leaders and decision makers now have a copy of God's word in their possession to help them make sound and Godly decisions that will affect future generations to come.

Blessings,

John Starke
