

JOHN'S JOURNAL

Prayer Letter of John Starke

May 2012

Do you ever feel like this?

Lately I've been feeling more and more like the picture on the right. I keep plodding along being faithful at the job set before me but it seems like I just never quite get to where I feel that I'm finally caught up. No matter what I do to try to "speed up".

Financially life has gotten more complicated also. I was able to pay a big tax bill in April for which I am truly thankful. My car acted up and I spent hundreds of dollars on major repair bills. I've been trying to eat better but as you know organic food costs more so even though I rarely eat out I'm spending more on food as well as on gasoline prices.

2 Corinthians 4:1 says, "Therefore, since through God's mercy we have this ministry, we do not lose heart." Would you pray for me that God will help lift this financial burden? Would you consider partnering with me in meeting these needs?

Thank you for your prayers and support.
