

JOHN'S JOURNAL

Prayer Letter of John Starke

November 2010

Meet my baby.....

Those of you who know me well know that I am a single man that loves to skate and enjoys working in the background at Equipping The Saints. I am good at solving logistical problems that deal with the computers and can usually figure out a way to come up with needed information.

One of the problems that I have been working on since January has been the ETS shopping cart and website. I have spent many hours getting pictures, accumulating information, setting categories, and writing descriptions for the 3,852 item that we have listed. We have listings for light bulbs and lamps, church supplies, DVD's and videos, equipment, health supplies, Bibles, Christian books and over 1700 Christian books in Spanish.

My baby went live July 8th of this year and has kept me busy with updates and additions. I invite you to stop by and take a look. I add items weekly and, like a real baby, it is growing and expanding. No, I don't carry a picture of "Junior" in my wallet but you can be sure I have the web address on my business cards.

Thank you for your prayers and support. My dental work is almost complete. I have two small cavities that need to be treated and I will finally be finished. I am very grateful for your financial assistance and very thankful for your encouragement.
